FOR PRESIDENT IN 1888, JAMES G. BLAINE, OF MAINE.

Subject to the decision of the Republican National Convention.

"We always have the American flag above us and not below us."—James G. Blaine.

Morrow will not bribe another jury.

Napa will have the electric light in two weeks.

The business men of San Diego have subscribed $300 a month to hire extra postal clerks.

On and after November 1st the Stockton Gas Company's rate will be $2 75 per 1,000 cubic feet.

The connection between the California & Oregon Railroad will not be completed before December 1st.

Jay Gould, it is said, will sail for Europe in a few days. Mr. Gould will winter in the Mediterranean.

The first and most urgent work before the President will be the appointment of a Justice of the Supreme Court to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Justice E. Woods.

Irving Hall has nominated Delancy Nicoll for District Attorney of New York City, in opposition to Colonel Fellows, the candidate of Tammany and the County Democracy.

Hon. R. E. Washburne, ex-Minister to France, died at the home of his son, Hempstead Washburne, in Chicago at 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon of congestion of the heart and brain.

Gladstone is suffering from a bad cold and confined to his bed. He is also suffering from excessive fatigue superinduced by his travels of the past few days and the many speeches made by him.

Chairman Jones has issued a call for the National Republican Committee to meet at the Arlington Hotel, Washington, December 8th, to fix upon the date and place of the next National Republican Convention.

It is stated that the Northern Pacific Railroad Company will receive the highest award and the gold medal at the American Exhibition at London, for its display of products of Oregon, Washington Territory, Idaho, Montana and Dakota.

The jury in the Morrow case at 11:30 last Saturday night reported that they stood eleven for conviction and one for acquittal, with no probability of agreeing. Judge Sullivan ordered their discharge and released Morrow on $25,000 bail.

Dr. Green, President of the Western Union Telegraph Company, says: "It is intended to make a uniform rate of 25 cents for ten-word messages from any point to any other point in the same State in all the territory east of the Mississippi river."

The President was heartily glad to get home, though as heartily glad he went away. During the three weeks of his journeying he has traveled 4,500 miles and passed through seventeen States, crossing them twice, and has seen and been seen by several millions of American citizens.

Davis Kearney has addressed an open letter to Henry George, asking him to state how he voted on the Chinese question in 1879, and generally to define his present position. Kearney says in the letter that if George fails to answer the questions propounded, he will be compelled to brand him as a China-phobist and supporter of Mott street.

A Land Case.

WASHINGTON, October 22.—Acting Secretary Muldrow to-day reversed a decision of the Commissioner of the General Land Office in the case of George Murphy vs. Samuel Kinder. The controversy involves land in section 12, township 21 north, range 38 east, Spokane Falls, W. T. A timber-culture entry appears to have been made by Kinder in May, 1883, and in June, 1884, Murphy initiated a contest, alleging that Kinder had wholly failed to plow five acres of land during the last year of said entry, or any part of said five acres. Notwithstanding this, Commissioner Sparks decided in favor of Kinder, but Acting Secretary Muldrow overrules the decision and orders the cancellation of the entry.

OUR SHIPPING INTEREST.

An Effort to be Made to Restore it to Its Former Glory.

Boston, Mass., October 18.—The American Shipping Industrial League held its second day's session this morning.

William H. Webb, of New York, was the first speaker. He referred to the former prosperity of American shipping under Government protection and assistance, and to the decline when that assistance was withdrawn. To-day, he said, of our naval seamen 10 per cent. are foreigners and if war should break out we would have to buy foreign ships and man them with foreign men. Protection made it possible to buy ships in this country, and the Government should make it possible to build up the industry again with the material at hand. There was no reason why we should not command the chief part of the carrying trade of the country. He thought it possible that we should have to go through a great thrashing before the country would awake to the necessity of the hour.

W. H. Lincoln referred to the former prosperity of New England shipping and advocated Government aid. He believed that, unless something vigorous was done our shipping would be practically extinct in five years. There has not, he said, been a ship built in Massachusetts for six years.

Various committees were appointed to attend other shipping conventions in various parts of the country, and a committee was appointed to visit President Cleveland and to obtain his co-operation in the movement.

After other addresses in the same vein the convention adjourned.

Forest Fires.

SANTA CRUZ, October 22d.—This place is enveloped in a cloud of smoke. Great damage is being done to property outside by the fires. At night great stretches of fire can be seen from here. In the vicinity of Highland men and women are fighting the flames and moving their household goods into the open fields. Several houses, barns and bridges are also reported burned.

Reports are constantly coming in of great damage being done by the fire in all directions.

POINT ARENA, October 22d.—Forest fires have been raging with terrible effect near here during the past week. A great expanse of timber land has been burned over, and one house and barn are reported destroyed.

HEALDSBURG, October 22.—The mountain fires have burned the Little Geyser Hotel, the Ocean View ranch, the Blue Lick Springs building and several other places. The loss, so far, is about $25,000.

SAN LUIS OBISPO, October 22.—The forest fires are unabated. The town to-night is wrapped in a mantle of smoke. The principal fire is between this city and Choro Creek, in the Choro hills to the north. No estimates can yet be made of the area of the district burned.

An Interesting Decision.

WASHINGTON, October 22.—The Commissioner of Patents has rendered a decision to the effect that an applicant cannot embrace in one and the same application for letters patent more than one distinct and separate invention. The case decided is one in which the applicant sought to patent both a machine and the process for the separation of garlic from wheat. The Commissioner holds that in order to be patented the process must not be merely a result of the operation of the machine, but must have an existence independent of the machine. This has long been a disputed question.

McDonald's Central Pacific Stock.

The latest charge made against Mrs. Clara Belle McDonald, who attempted to shoot her father-in-law, R. H. McDonald, last Thursday night, is that she is concerned in the theft of twenty-five shares of the Central Pacific Railroad stock. Mrs. McDonald sold the stock to Senator Stanford for $10,000, and Dr. McDonald now claims that the shares were stolen from him some months ago. He also claims that the indorsement on the certificate is a forgery.

Frank Frust, an old resident of Mt. Angel, Or., was found dead in bed at Portland, Friday. The inquest developed the fact that Frust had spent the preceding night in an endeavor to drink a quart bottle of whisky. Not being accustomed to strong drink, he was killed by apoplexy before he succeeded. He was ordinarily sober and industrious and was possessed of some means.

Captain R. G. Shaw did not heed the injunction of the Superior Court at Ukiah in the matter of putting settlers off the Round Valley Indian Reservation, so the Superior Court issued a requisition for the Sheriff to bring Captain Shaw into court to show cause why he should not be punished.

Wells, Fargo & Co. did well to send their check for $2,000 to the plucky messenger, Smith, who recently frightened off the train robbers near El Paso. Such a reward will be apt to put some nerve into other express messengers and to materially reduce the number of train robberies.

NEWS ITEMS.

The London Daily News says there is reason to believe that Lord Lyons is about to retire from the British Embassy at Paris in favor of Lord Lytton.

Intelligence has been received at London of the destruction by fire of Kitab, a town of Buchara, Central Asia. Half the inhabitants perished in the flames.

The Detroiters have beaten the St. Louis Browns so badly that base ball sharps are why they ever thought it possible that the championship might be retained by the Missouri organization.

During the fiscal year 1886-87 San Francisco's exports exceeded $41,000,000. The port ranks third in the list of American ports, only New York and Boston exceeding her in the amount of imports.

It became known to the police of San Jose Saturday, that May Peterson, a woman of the town, had been robbed of $1,700 by her two boys, aged respectively 16 and 12 years. The older boy has gone East.

John Segger, a Cincinnati patrolman, arrived in Los Angeles Saturday in search of his wife, who ran off with a druggist named Heberd, and came West, leaving her husband and several young children.

Off Harwich, England, on Wednesday afternoon, a bottle corked and fastened with a wire, was found floating in the sea. It contained the following: "The crew of the Bird of Freedom all went down off Sandy Hook, Almond, Captain. The Lord be with us."

Saturday evening, at Maxwell, Indiana, Perry Ackers entered the office of Mayor J. R. French, shot and killed him, and then shot T. B. Schmetzer; but not fatally, and after pursuing the others present, turned and shot himself, dying immediately. No cause for the murder is known.

The Secretary of the Interior has received a telegram from Indian Inspector Armstrong, at the Crow Agency, in Montana, to the effect that the rebellious medicine man and his seventeen followers have gone to the Tongue-river Agency and are endeavoring to induce the Northern Cheyennes to join them in resisting the authority of the Government.

Conkling's Power of Quotation.

I know all the lawyers in New York, and I'll take an affidavit that Roscoe Conkling is the only one of them all that knows enough Scripture to quote even the Lord's Prayer correctly. He has the Bible at his finger's ends, or seems to have, once he gets started quoting it, and he does that often. In a day's speech he always slings in a score or more of quotations from the Bible, every one so apt that it seems impossible that they are impromptu and not looked up beforehand. But he really does evolve them on the spot. I saw that proved once, during the arguments in the great Dinsmore railroad suits out at Trenton some three years ago. He and Secor Robeson were on opposite sides. The court-room was crowded and hot, and everyone was weary of the railroad case. Suddenly Robeson, ponderously raising his hand, interrupted Conkling with some quotation pleasantly satirical. He laughed until his fat form quivered like jelly. In an instant Conkling retorted with a quotation that was even more apt than Robeson's and turned the laugh. Conkling was marvelous. The Bible and poets and sages of all times paid tribute to his demand for a tart repartee. One of Conkling's best hits was when Robeson introduced some allusion to so commonplace a thing as a fact, and Conkling, with an inimitable gesture, pointed to Robeson and exclaimed:

A primrose by the river's brim
A yellow primrose was to him;
And it was nothing more.
What finally squelched Robeson was, I believe, something from Pope. Conkling, with a mock reverential bow to Robeson, who was still lying back in his chair, and shaking with laughter, exclaimed:
See, where he
Shakes his ambrosial locks and gives the nod,
The stamp of fate and sanction of the God.
After that I never suspected Conkling of having his quotations made to order beforehand.—Letter N. Y. Sun.

PROFUSION SHOOTING.

Perforating a Public School.

A few nights ago a few possibly drunken horsemen drove out Fourth street, and just after crossing the narrow-gauge railroad, amid wild shouts and terrific yells, discharged their revolvers in mid-air, awakening, if not scaring the wits out of some of the womenfolks in the neighborhood. Such cow-boy demonstrations should not be permitted within the city limits. Complaints come also from Spanish Spring Valley that on last Sunday evening a party of a similar character drove up to the school house recently erected there, and where Miss Killeen is teaching, and perforated the building with bullets. Some of the missiles sped through the room and imbedded themselves in the blackboard, passing through the maps suspended and otherwise disfiguring the "seat of learning." The parties perpetrating this outrage imagine that their identity is not discoverable, but they are now informed through the columns of the JOURNAL that if this uncivilized and un-American performance is repeated, that they will be brought to speedy justice.

THE HISTORY OF A SAFE.—The celebrated safe "Dreadnaught" which formerly belonged to the notorious Frankols, was some time ago shipped to Reno, by Frank Golden, with the expectation that the Abraham brothers would purchase it for $450. Yesterday, however, it was sold to Mr. Brookins for $350. It is a mammoth affair weighing 5,800 pounds, and originally cost $1,500. It is both fire and burglar proof. But how the mighty have fallen. What a history this old safe could tell were it capable of unravelling the mysteries it has contained.

MORE CATTLE SHIPMENTS.—Hock Mason rested eleven carloads of cattle at Reno Sunday night, and yesterday shipped the entire lot to San Francisco. L. Alexander had eight carloads on the same train, and they were shipped to the Bay also. The cattle all came from Winnemucca. C. W. McDade had one carload of fine horses on the same train destined to L. N. Hoger's stock yard in Oakland, California. This made twenty cars of cattle and horses. They attracted quite a large crowd about the Depot Hotel.

CATTLE AND SHEEP.—Mr. C. Colombet shipped 150 head of cattle from Reno yesterday. They were brought in from Battle Mountain and were sent to Horn & Chapman, San Francisco. Mr. Colombet went away on the train with the cattle, but will return to repeat the transaction in a few days. Nineteen carloads of sheep were expected in Reno last night, as we were going to press, for pasturage on the various ranches in the Truckee valley. Dan Wheeler says he will have over 20,000 head of sheep on his ranch this fall.

GAMBLERS' ESCAPE.—In the District Court at Virginia Saturday, Judge Rising dismissed the indictments against the gamblers for alleged violation of the clause in the act restricting them from dealing games of chance on the first floors of premises. The cases were dismissed on the ground that the defendants had paid a license to deal on the floors where they were located at the time they were arrested.

STEWART'S OFFICE.—The Carson Tribune says: "The law office of W. M. Stewart & Co., on Printer's Row, will be removed to the dwelling of the Senator early next week, and in a month from now the family will remove to Washington, there to remain during the winter. Fitting up the present law office must have been a costly business, but as it was done during the Senatorial campaign, expense was no object."

PLEASANT VALLEY COAL.—A great many of our citizens, owing to the cheapness of Pleasant Valley coal, are availing themselves of the opportunity, and changing their wood burners into coal stoves. Hugh J. Mohan is agent for this coal, and is selling large quantities daily at $13 50 per ton. Leave orders at Tom Barnett's clothing store.

Bob McGinley and his troupe are playing in Oregon to big houses.

A NEVADA INDUSTRY.—The Virginia

Report remarks: Messrs. Mitchell and Smith, the weavers, who a short time ago created their Jacquard weaving loom here, have pulled up stakes and will settle permanently in Reno. There they will devote themselves to steady weaving, and work in their line in the endeavor to build up a permanent woolen manufactory. Such a sheep State as Nevada ought to be a kingpin among woolen manufactory States. Mother Nature has conferred on Nevada a host of favors, which only need to be utilized in order to make the battle-born State one of the finest in the Union. Every year the fleece of countless herds of sheep is sent East to return in the shape of manufactured goods. The seed is sown and product grown without the State deriving her just share of profit in the industry of her sons. For the wool is shipped East at an expense that goes to enrich the pocket of that cormorant—the Central Pacific; and, returning, comes as manufactured goods that has to pay a westward toll. Woolen manufactories would be a benefit to the State.

THE MIRROR OF IRELAND.—Saturday night the Grand had a fine audience to hear the Dan Morris Sullivan Combination and to see the beautiful scenes of Ireland as this troupe mirrors them. There are eighty of these paintings, each thirteen feet high and ten feet long. The moonlight effect on many of these pictures is charming, besides being instructive and amusing. The troupe had a warm welcome by our people, and will be heartily welcomed when they return. The entertainment they give is one of the best going, and any who expected to see anything cheap or vulgar in it were compelled last night to admit their error. If all "dollar" entertainments were as careful of the ears of listeners as the Sullivan's, as a rule, it would be just as well. Josie is a bright, piquant creature, and knows how little comedy there is in "high kicking." Her acting was good throughout. Dan was generally good. On the whole, they gave a good, clean, amusing entertainment. —San Francisco Chronicle, April 9.

At the Theater Saturday and Monday evenings. Seats on sale at the Post-office.

ROLL OF HONOR AND MERIT.—Following is the roll of honor of Bishop Whitaker's School for Girls for the month ending October 9:

Roll of Honor—Hattie Higgins, 988-9; Mary Lulus, 987; Vesta Rice, 983-11; Susie Shoemaker, 97 10-11; Hattie Mason, 97 7; Mina Atchison, 97 2-7.
Roll of Merit—Lida Russell, 97 3-5; Louise Lucas, 97 2-7; Emma Blauvelt, 97 3-10; Aimes Sherman, 97 1-9; Grace Daggett, 97; Louise Thisher, 97; Mary McCormick, 96 3-10; Mattie Conner, 96 3-13; Nina Moore, 96.
Roll of Honor, Department of Music—Mina Atchison, Edna Mason, Della Sherman, Rachel Frederick, Grace Daggett, Flo Finnigan, Emma Blauvelt.

WILL NOT REBUILD.—The Carson Index-Union says: It has been concluded not to rebuild "Mill No. 1" which was burned at Glenbrook a few days since. The other mill will be lighted with electricity and run night and day. Mr. Bliss has the electric light plant being prepared, and when this is in operation the same amount of timber can be cut as before and with greater economy of outlay in the way of invested capital.

A FAITHFUL OFFICER.—Night Watchman Mereson completes his fifth year "on the rounds" in Reno to-night. It is but just to him to say that he has been a vigilant and faithful officer, and still continues to merit the support of all law-abiding citizens.

One or more surgeons from the Western Division, 319 Bush street, S. F., of the National Surgical Institute, will be at the Barnes Hotel, Reno, November 10th, the Ormsby House, Carson City, November 11th, and at the International Hotel, Virginia City, November 12th, 1897. Persons suffering from diseases of the spine, hip, limbs or any bodily deformity, paralysis, piles, fistula, sexual or chronic diseases should avail themselves of this opportunity. References given throughout the U. S. Consultation free.

Lieutenant-Governor Davis, after an absence of about a week in Elko and the surrounding country, on official business, has returned to Reno to look after his coal and lumber business. He speaks highly of the outlook for the Tuscarora mining region, and bespeaks for Eastern Nevada a brighter future than many anticipate.

There is a great mining excitement at Canyon City, the county seat of Grant county, Oregon. The whole town is out prospecting and mining locations are being made daily. The ore in the new mines resembles that found at Leadville, Colorado.

BEATS THE LOUISIANA LOTTERY.—For the next sixty days all those who purchase one dollar's worth of groceries at Havenor's Cash Store will receive a ticket in a drawing for a fine gold watch. This is certainly a liberal proposition and all groceries sold at this establishment are fresh and of the best quality, and are disposed of at the lowest retail price. All goods are warranted and if not as represented the purchase price will be refunded. Go and take your chances in the watch.

AUCTION.—I will sell at auction the remnant of stock of dry goods commencing Monday Oct. 24, at 2 p. m. and continue until all are sold.
